H. DIRECTOR'S CORNER - Dennis P. Koch, MPA Director, Behavioral Health Services

Dennis P. Koch, Director, MPA – Behavioral Health Services budget will be ready for this Board by the May meeting. Not much will change. There was an increase in salaries – 3% increase this year and 3% next year. The Governor’s budget has been released. Three main categories of bills being submitted: (1) Opioid Crisis. (2) Homelessness - BHS has submitted the No Place Like Home application to State which will fund a 40-60 unit complex behind Carl’s Jr., next to the freeway. (3) MHSA – Currently have $6 million in prudent reserve to use if the economy goes down. New bill only allows to keep certain amount, for us $3 million. Thinking of ideas to spend the money – Solar panels for 7th Street, a structured living facility. Another new bill would give County responsibility to treat mild to moderate mental illness or refer client to their Health Plan.
